An estate planning law firm for life's seasons.

Attorneys Lynn A. Dean & Tracy Poston Shows

Lynn A. Dean
Attorney at Law

Lynn A. Dean has specialized in Estate Planning and Elder law since 1996. A 1980 graduate of McGeorge School of Law, she established her own law firm in 1986. With more than 30 years of experience and a capable team of professionals, Lynn has earned the confidence of many clients. Lynn has served her community on various non-profit boards for over 27 years. She is a frequent guest speaker, and has taught with the Sierra College Emeritus Program, teaching classes for seniors on legal issues. Lynn is a member of the South Placer Estate Planning Council. She has been published in the Sacramento Bee, as part of the “Ask the Expert” series, and is very proud to note that she has been voted the “Favorite Attorney” for six years in a row, by the readers of “Style Magazine”.

Tracy Poston Shows
Attorney at Law

Tracy L. Poston Shows has been a practicing attorney in Sacramento and Placer Counties since 1995. Tracy established her own solo law practice in 2009 dedicated exclusively to the areas of estate planning, trust and estate administration, probate and guardianship proceedings. Prior to creating her own firm, she was a Rotary Scholarship recipient and addressed many Rotary Clubs giving her a strong foundation in public speaking and a commitment to community service. Bringing both of these pillars to her law practice, she welcomes every opportunity to work with and educate her community through public speaking engagements and with her clients' representation. Tracy was recognized as ‘Pro Bono Attorney of the Year’ by Placer County Superior Court in 2015 for her volunteerism representing parents in guardianship proceedings.
